

Lyrics and Chords for Chance of Rain
By Jennifer Jill

Evangelion!
This is a Greek word first coined in Egypt several centuries before Christ. When ships loaded with grain came into the ports of Alexandria from Phoenicia, the hungry people would cry "Eudagellion!" meaning "Good news!"

Capo Fret 5

Refrain:

 D D E

Evangelion! Yes, for once the news is good

Evangelion! Well, then let it be understood

Dsus DaddE

All your debt is gone, all your doubts were wrong

Evangelion! Oh, don't let your soul be sad

Evangelion! When the tidings are just so glad

Dsus DaddE

Pass the news along, fill the air with song

D D E A

Lift up your voice, it's your solemn choice

F#m D A D E A

Will you believe this gift held out for the joyful taking?

D E A D E

The air you breathe, is abundant, free

F#m D A D E F#m

So the most precious grace of Christ o'er the world is breaking

D A D E F#m

Such a balance has been paid, such a sacrifice was made

Why don't we worship Him so gratefully?

Refrain

D E A D E

Tell every child they've been reconciled

F#m D A D E A

Go tell the others they've been freed by the same endeavor

 D D A
 F#m A D E F#m
 You've made a difference in this world and a friend forever

D A D E F#m
 Freedom papers have been signed for each child of humankind

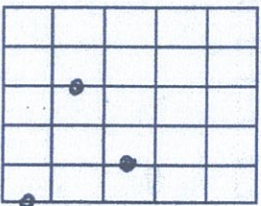

D E
 Then let us sing this warm reality!

Refrain

Versions of Me

Each of us are born into different circumstances, but have the same potential for good or evil.

Capo Fret 4

Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 Walking through God's story-land I see the work Jesus' hand
 Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 Time and time again it heals and something deep inside me feels
 Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 As if I was one of them, the ones that came time and again
 Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 Stumbling blind, outcast and lame, I am like them, we're all the same

Refrain:

F#m D A E
 The woman who reached for the hem of your robe
 F#m D A E
 The wee little man in the tree
 F#m D A E
 The one on her knees with her face in her hands
 F#m D A E
 The questioning old Pharisee
 D A F#m D E Esus F#sus add E
 I can see so many versions of me

Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 Maybe I've not walked the path of harlots, thieves and sons of wrath
 Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 But with change of circumstance I could, if given half a chance
 Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 Oh, how I relate to those who fell so low, but finally chose
 Esus F#sus add E D Esus E
 To receive your grace at last-my story echoes stories past

Refrain

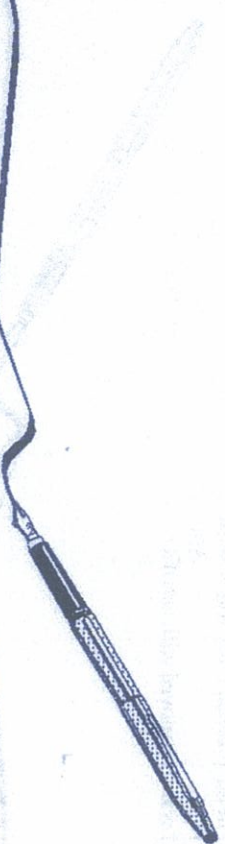

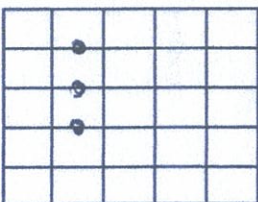

Bridge:

Fsus add E
 There's an answering chord inside me and it plays a strange familiar song
 Fsus add E
 When I see the ones just like me from another age
 Esus F#sus add E
 They jump off the page
 D E
 Where I know that I belong

Refrain

Fsus add E

One More Song About Mary

The abuse of power is at it's most hurtful when it occurs within the religious community. Mary was a victim of such abuse. This song was written for all the modern-day Marys I have known. God can heal the very worst damage and use your testimony to heal others.

Am Dsus D
I was a simple girl of Bethany
F Am
Until the day I ran away
Dsus D
Far from the lies of a Pharisee
F Am
Vowing I'd somehow make him pay
Dsus D
I tried to find a life in Magdala
F Am
But I was dying by degrees
Dsus D
Then came a man with the heart of God
F Am
I found myself upon my knees

Refrain:

G (A) F (G) C (D)
And the call came, and my feet could run no faster
G (A) F (G) C (D)
And the oil flowed like the blood that soon would run
G (A) F (G) C (D)
And my heart broke like a flask of alabaster
G (A) F (G) C (D)
And the Lord said to everyone, "Tell what she's done"

Am Dsus D
I never planned it the way it went
F Am
I was just moved with sacrifice

Dsus D

Now that I see it in retrospect
F Am
It was a portrait of the Christ

Refrain

Bridge:

Am G
I swore I'd never trust another man and here I was saying C
that this one was God
Am G
Whispers around the room could not stop the gratitude
F G A
that flowed so free over my Messiah

Refrain

Gethsemane Angel
Inspired by the chapter "Gethsemane" in the book "Desire of Ages."

Capo Fret 3

D D/G Asus A

Wish I was the angel who watched You as you prayed

A/G D D/G

Who counted drops of blood You sweat, and saw the price You paid

Em D addE Em D add E

Who came when You were broken down, to try to touch Your pain

Em D addE

Whose hand stroked softly on Your frown while whispering Your name

A D D/G A

Wish I was the angel in the dark so bright

D D/G Asus A D

Wish I was the angel that night

D D/G Asus A

Wish I was the angel who stayed right by your side

A/G D D/G

And held your head upon my heart, and rocked you as you cried

Em D addE Em D addE

Whose words, like sweetest music, brought just a bit of rest

Em D addE

Who spoke of peace and promise to the war zone in your breast

A D D/G A

Wish I was the angel in the dark so bright

D D/G Asus A D

Wish I was the angel that night

D D/G Asus A

And if I could have held you when you were most in need

A/G D D/G

My arms would be forever blessed, my soul forever freed

Em D addE Em D addE

I'd cherish all the timeless years that place where Love did grieve

Em D addE
I'd never wash away the tears and blood that stained my sleeve
A D D/G A
Wish I was the angel, in the dark so bright
D D/G Asus A D D/G A D
Wish I was the angel, wish I was the D/G A D G Asus A D
angel that night
